1.6. Research in Action Co-chair (RAC)

1.6.1. RAC is responsible for promoting research opportunities within the ISON for undergraduates, working with the ISON Dean of Research to find funding for student research, organizing research seminars, and working to build a centralized system for students to access research assistant opportunities.

1.6.2. One co-chair student seat is available on this committee. Any member of the NUS Council may sit on this committee. Additionally, any member at large may apply or be recruited by the VP Academic to fill this position.

1.7. Student Supplemental Resource Committee (SSRC)

1.7.1. The SSRC is a collaboration between the ISON faculty and the NUS to determine areas in which the NUS needs support in funding

1.7.2. Three student seats, with a combined two votes, are available on this committee. These seats will be filled by the Vice Presidents of Academic Affairs and the Vice President Finance.

2. The VP External will have the first choice in attending up to two of these external committees. The President shall be responsible for filling any vacant spots once all other NUS Council members have a chance to fill seats.

3. Any positions not filled at crossover will be announced at the first General Council of the year. Applicants will present themselves at the following NUS Council and shall have the opportunity to defend their candidacy. A majority vote will decide representatives.
4. The President shall keep up any contact required with committees if there is no nomination in April and shall hold a cross-over for the committee for incoming representatives in the Fall.
5. Committees of the NUS include:

- 5.1. Social Committee

- 5.1.1. Social Committee is coordinated and run by the Social Representative in order to provide undergraduate students with social events, with an effort to include non-alcoholic events. The Social Representative is responsible for recruitment and running of this committee and its initiatives.

- 5.2. Athletic Committee

- 5.2.1. Athletic Committee is responsible for organizing and promoting healthy and active living through various initiatives, including intramurals and classes on and off campus. In addition, this Committee is responsible for organizing Nursing Games teams. The Athletic & Health Representative is responsible for recruitment and coordination of this committee and its initiatives.

- 5.3. Wellness Committee

- 5.3.1. The Wellness Committee is responsible for advocating for, education about, and activities related to health and mental health, especially in the context of Nursing. The committee shall connect students to McGill and wider community resources and collaborate with on campus groups. The Vice President Internal is responsible for recruitment and coordination of this committee and its initiatives. In particular, the Vice President Internal is mandated to work with students from various years to organize peer support groups, and ensure facilitators are adequate.

- 5.4. Graduation Committee

- 5.4.1. The role of the Graduation Committee will be to participate in regular meetings, help with fundraising, design the yearbook, and set-up at Graduation Gala. Students can participate in one or more of the duties of the Grad Committee depending on their availability. The Graduation Representatives are responsible for recruitment and running of this committee and its initiatives.

5.5. McGill Nurses for Global Health (MNGH)

5.5.1. The MNGH is made up of graduate and undergraduate students aiming to foster awareness among the student body around issues of global health and social justice, to work in solidarity with community-based health organizations, and to advocate for the right to accessible health care. The Vice President Global Health is responsible for recruitment and coordination of this committee and its initiatives.

5.6. Canadian Nursing Students Association (CNSA) Committee

5.6.1. The CNSA Committee is responsible for the promotion and communication of the activities of national and regional CNSA activities, as well as coordination and fundraising for attendance of national and regional conferences. This committee will primarily be made up of students interested in going to conferences, and is chaired and coordinated by the AD CNSA.

5.7. Constitutional Reform Committee

5.7.1. This committee is tasked with reviewing the by-laws and constitution through consultation with the NUS Council and members-at large. The Chief Electoral Officer is responsible for coordination of this committee and its initiatives, and shall ensure consultation with members-at large.

- 6. All Committees of the NUS and representatives to External Committees must make a written report to the NUS Council at minimum once per semester about activities.
- 7. All Committees of the NUS must make efforts to recruit and involve incoming members-at-large, including BScN U0's and U's, and BNI U2's.

By-Law 5: Elections Rules
